The Road Ahead: Understanding 21st-Century Schools

Join us Wednesday, January 20, 2010 for the latest Education Roadshow – an opportunity for our community to unite to learn something new.

District Support Programs Fair

Preceding the main speakers, come gather information about the Bellevue School District and its many support programs for students and parents. Booths will be open until 8 p.m.

Closing the Achievement Gap Across America

Gates Foundation Deputy Director of Education Dr. John Deasy, will discuss how the achievement gap is being addressed in schools and districts across America. At the Foundation he promotes policies and practices throughout the country designed to ensure that all students graduate from high school with the knowledge and skills they need to succeed in college.

Closing the Achievement Gaps in Bellevue

Dr. Amalia Cudeiro, Superintendent of Bellevue Public Schools, will address the achievement gaps in our district, and highlight the strategies being used to eliminate them. In Bellevue, there are two kinds of achievement gap: students who are not reaching basic state standards, and students who are exceeding expectations. The district aims to ensure every child receives optimal instruction.

Breakout Sessions

Following our keynote speakers, there will be workshops for parents and community members. Teachers, specialists, and students will be featured on a variety of topics. Special sessions will be available in several languages besides English.
